- * Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding? on page 2.

By signing the filted-out form, you:

- 1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
- 2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- 3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payes, if applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
- Certify that FATCA code(e) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting? on page 2 for further information.

Note. If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person, For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you we:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident allen;
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States;
- · An estate (other than a foreign estate); or
- A domestio trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7)

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax under section 1446 on any foreign partners' share of effectively connected trachle income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, the rules under section 1446 require a partnership to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the section 1446 withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid section 1446 withholding on your share of partnership income.

In the cases below, the following person must give Form W-8 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and evolding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States:

- in the case of a disregarded entity with a U.S. owner, the U.S. owner of the disregarded entity and not the entity;
- In the case of a grantor trust with a U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner, generally, the U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner of the grantor trust and not the trust; and
- In the case of a U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust), the U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person or the U.S. branch of a foreign bank that has elected to be treated as a U.S. person, do not use Form W-9, instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 or Form 8233 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Allens and Foxeign Entitles).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident silen. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause," Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident allen who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tex treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tex on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

- The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
- 2. The treaty article addressing the income.
- The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
- 4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tex.
- Bufficient facts to fastify the exemption from tex under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tex treaty allows an exemption from tex for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily prosent in the United States. Under U.S. taw, this student will become a resident allen for iax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident allen of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or ter scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident allon or a foreign entity, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8 or Form 9233.

Backup Withholding

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS 28% of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividents, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, payments made in estitement of payment card and third party network transactions, and certain payments from tishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TiN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

- 1. You do not turnish your TIN to the requester,
- 2, You do not cartify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 3 for details);

- 8. The IR8 tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,
- 4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tex return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or
- You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Coriain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See Exempt payee code on page 3 and the separate instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Also see Special rules for partnerships above.

What is FATCA reporting?

The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATOA) requires a participating foreign financial institution to report all United States account holders that are specified United States persons. Certain payers are exempt from FATOA reporting. See Exemption from FATOA reporting code on page 3 and the instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you delimed to be an exempt payer if you are no longer an exempt payer and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new from W-3 if the name or TIN changes for the account; for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fall to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding, if you make a laise statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Oriminal penalty for faisifying information. Willfully faisifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to oriminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

16. Default

- a. If the Consultant refuses or fails to prosecute the work, or any separable part thereof, with the diligence that will ensure its completion within the time specified in this contract, or any extension thereof, or fails to complete said work within this time, the Contracting Officer may, by written notice to the Consultant, terminate the right to proceed with the work (or separable part of the work) that has been delayed. In this event, the HACC may take over the work and complete it, by contract or otherwise, and may take possession of and use any materials necessary for completing the work. The Consultant and its sureties shall be liable for any damage to the HACC resulting from the Consultant's refusal or failure to complete the work within the specified time, whether or not the Consultant's right to proceed with the work is terminated. This liability includes any increased costs incurred by the HACC in completing the work.
- b. The Consultant's right to proceed shall not be terminated or the Consultant charged with damages under this clause if-
- (1) The delay in completing the work arises from unforeseeable causes beyond the control and without the fault or negligence of the Consultant. Examples of such causes include (i) acts of God, or of the public enemy, (ii) acts of the HACC or other governmental entity in either its sovereign or contractual capacity, (iii) fires, (iv) floods, (vi) epidemics, (vii) quarantine restrictions, (viii) unusually severe weather; and
- (2) The Consultant, within ten (10) days from the beginning of such delay (unless extended by the Contracting Officer) notifies the Contracting Officer in writing of the causes of delay. The Contracting Officer shall ascertain the facts and the extent of the delay. If, in the judgment of the Contracting Officer, the findings of fact warrant such action, time for completing the work shall be extended by written modification to the contract. The findings of the Contracting Officer shall be reduced to a written decision that shall be subject to the provisions of clause 15. Disputes herein.
- c. If, after termination of the Consultant's right to proceed, it is determined that the Consultant was not in default, or that the delay was excusable, the rights and obligations of the parties will be the same as if the termination had been for the convenience of the HACC.
- 17. Liquidated Damages not applicable for this contract. If the consultant fails to perform the scope of services as stated in the contract, the contract can be terminated.

18. Termination For Convenience

- a. The Contracting Officer may terminate this contract in whole, or in part, whenever the Contracting Officer determines that such termination is in the best interest of the HACC. Any such termination shall be effected by delivery to the Consultant of a Notice of Termination specifying the extent to which the performance of the work under the contract is terminated, and the date upon which such termination becomes effective.
- b. If the performance of the work is terminated, either in whole or in part, the HACC shall be liable to the Consultant for reasonable and proper costs resulting from such termination which costs shall be paid to the Consultant within 90 days of receipt by the HACC of a properly presented claim setting out in detail: (1) the total cost of the work performed to date of termination less the total amount of contract payments made to the consultant; (2) the cost (including reasonable profit) of settling and paying claims under subcontracts and material orders for work performed and materials and supplies delivered to the site, payment for which has not been made by the HACC to the Consultant or by the Consultant to the subconsultant or supplier; (3) the cost of preserving and protecting the work already performed until the HACC or assignee takes possession thereof or assumes responsibility therefore; (4) the actual or estimated cost of legal and accounting services reasonably necessary to prepare and present the termination claim to the HACC; and (5) an amount constituting a reasonable profit on the value of the work performed by the Consultant.

26. Limitations on Payments Made to Influence Certain Federal Financial Transactions

- a. The Consultant agrees to comply with Section 1352 of title 31, United States Code which prohibits the use of Federal appropriated funds to pay any person for influencing or attempting to influence an officer or employee of any agency, a Member of Congress, and officer or employee of Congress, or an employee of a member of Congress in connection with any of the following covered Federal actions: the awarding of any Federal contract; the making of any Federal grant; the making of any Federal loan; the entering into of any cooperative agreement, or the modification of any Federal contract, grant, loan, or cooperative agreement.
- b. The consultant further agrees to comply with the requirement of the Act to furnish a disclosure (OMB Standard Form LLL, Disclosure of Lobbying Activities) if any funds other than Federal appropriated funds (including profit or fee received under a covered Federal transaction) have been paid, or will be paid, to any person for influencing or attempting to influence an officer or employee of any agency, a Member of Congress, an officer or employee of Congress, or an employee of a Member of Congress in connection with a Federal contract, grant, loan, or cooperative agreement.

27. Royalties and Patents

The Consultant shall pay all royalties and license fees. It shall defend all suits or claims for infringement of any patent rights and shall save the HACC harmless from loss on account thereof; except that the HACC shall be responsible for all such loss when a particular design, process or the product of a particular manufacturer or manufacturers is specified and the Consultant has no reason to believe that the specified design, process, or product is an infringement. If, however, the Consultant has reason to believe that any design, process or product specified is an infringement of a patent, the Consultant shall promptly notify the Contracting Officer. Failure to give such notice shall make the Consultant responsible for resultant loss.

28. Rights in Data and Copyrights

Except as provided elsewhere in this clause, the HACC shall have unlimited rights in data first produced in the performance of this contract.

29. Examination and Retention of Consultant's Records

- a. The HACC, HUD, or Comptroller General of the United States, or any of their duly authorized representatives shall, until 3 years after final payment under this contract, have access to and the right to examine any of the Consultant's directly pertinent books, documents, papers, or other records involving transactions related to this contract for the purpose of making audit, examination, excerpts, and transcriptions.
- b. The periods of access and examination in paragraphs (a) and (b) above for records relating to (1) appeals under the clause above titled 16. Disputes, (2) litigation or settlement of claims arising from the performance of this contract, or (3) costs and expenses of this contract to which the HACC, HUD, or Comptroller General or any of their duly authorized representatives has taken exception shall continue until disposition of such appeals, litigation, claims, or exceptions.
